Located on a sought-after district in Protaras and occupying a a very large site, a bespoke family mansion is available for sale which is predominantly arranged over three floors (960 sq. m) with the added benefit of a substantial privacy.

From the impressive entrance hall, there is the formal sitting and dining room that overlooks the magnificent grounds, that opens onto the lounge room with fireplace and in turn opens onto the well maintained kitchen with all appliances. Moving upstairs there are 5 bedrooms sharing a family bathroom and 2 bedroom with en-suite facility. The property also features a multiple use basement which is currently utilized as a wine room and for storage space.
