Offering an exciting opportunity to secure a modern off-plan home in Kamares, this two-bedroom apartment combines contemporary living with sweeping sea and city views. With 79 m² of well-designed internal space, it represents an ideal choice for professionals, couples, or investors seeking fresh design in an established Cyprus location.

Thoughtfully planned for effortless everyday living, the residence presents a bright, open-plan layout connecting the primary living and dining areas. Both bedrooms provide calm and restful quarters, supported by two modern bathrooms configured for daily privacy and comfort. An elevator within the building ensures seamless, step-free access straight to your front door.
